

Cover:

Archaeologists can dig it.

1. What does the photograph on the cover show? Why do you think the photograph was used on the cover?
2. To what do you think the phrase, "Satellites Dig from the Sky" refers?

Pages 2-3

Garbage yields treasures.

3. How can a garbage dump be a treasure trove?
4. Why is the history of humans an incomplete picture?
5. How does a fossil differ from an artifact?

Pages 4-5

Excavation sites are dug up.

6. Why are natural-disaster sites a good source of artifacts?
7. What information can satellites provide?
8. What did archaeologists find on Wall Street?

Pages 6-7

Secret armies are uncovered.

9. Who was Qin Shi Huangdi?
10. How do archaeologists use buoyancy in their undersea excavations?
11. Why are there many shipwrecks along the Caribbean coasts?

Pages 10-11

Great Civilizations are developed around the world.

12. What civilization does 12 represent?
13. What was longer ago. 2300 B.C. or 12 B.C.?

Pages 12-13

Artifacts are learning tools.

14. What can be learned from artifacts?
15. Why do archaeologists rely on ancient writings?
16. What is the purpose of the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act?

Pages 14-15

Artifacts can be destroyed.

17. What happened to Robert Scott's crew in Antarctica?
18. Why are archaeologists interested in Port Royal, Jamaica?
19. Why didn't the bog people's bodies decompose?

Pages 16-17

Some of history's mysteries remain uncovered.

20. What is the legend of Saint Brendan?
21. What are the Dead Sea Scrolls?
22. Why has the name "Piltdown Man" almost come to mean hoax?

